Overview

A Fiber Termination Box (FTB), also known as an Optical Terminal Box (OTB), is a crucial component in Fiber to the Home (FTTH) applications. Its primary function is to efficiently manage and terminate fiber optic cables, connecting the cable's core to a pigtail. By understanding the components, types, and differences between various fiber management devices, businesses can make informed decisions when deploying and maintaining their fiber. Think of a Fiber Terminal Box (also known as a Fiber Optic Terminal Box or Optical Distribution Box) as the dedicated hub for managing and distributing fiber optic signals, primarily in the "last mile" or within premises. It is small, so it is considered a mini version of the optical distribution frame or optical distribution frame (ODF).
